The children of Tommy and Valerie Lindsay are honored to announce the 50th wedding anniversary of their parents. Tommy and Valerie met in France during World War II. He was a handsome, brave soldier, and she was a beautiful, sweet French girl. They met, fell in love, and were married on March 15, 1946. Soon after the war, they both returned to the United States to settle down in the beautiful Heber Valley.

They have five children: David T. Lindsay, of Heber City; Betty Sweat, of Heber City; Nancy (Mike) Morris, of Anchorage, Alaska; Scott P. (Lee) Lindsay, of Heber City, and Michelle Perschon, of Grand Junction, CO. They have 16 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The family would like to invite all friends and family to an Open House to help celebrate this day with this very special couple. It will be held on Friday, March 15, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., at the Heber Visitors Center, 475 North Main.

No gifts, please. But cards and letters would be greatly appreciated. They will be used to make a memory book.
